Shramev's Bulletin

► "Before four months we could at least afford a day's meal"

Bihar: Prabhunath Yadav was employed from the age of 26. Though he is just 8th class passed, he managed to make ends meet for his family. He had been working as a taxi driver for a private firm for nearly 7 years in Bihar. Things were going well until the declaration of a nationwide lockdown. He was temporarily laid off from his job, worried about contracting the virus. He was informed about this removal on a temporary basis. Days passed, months passed yet there is no sign of his getting back to work. His calls to the company went in vain as there was nobody to address his issue.

In spite of being an employee in the same company for about 7 years, he is still out of work having no means of help and assistance.

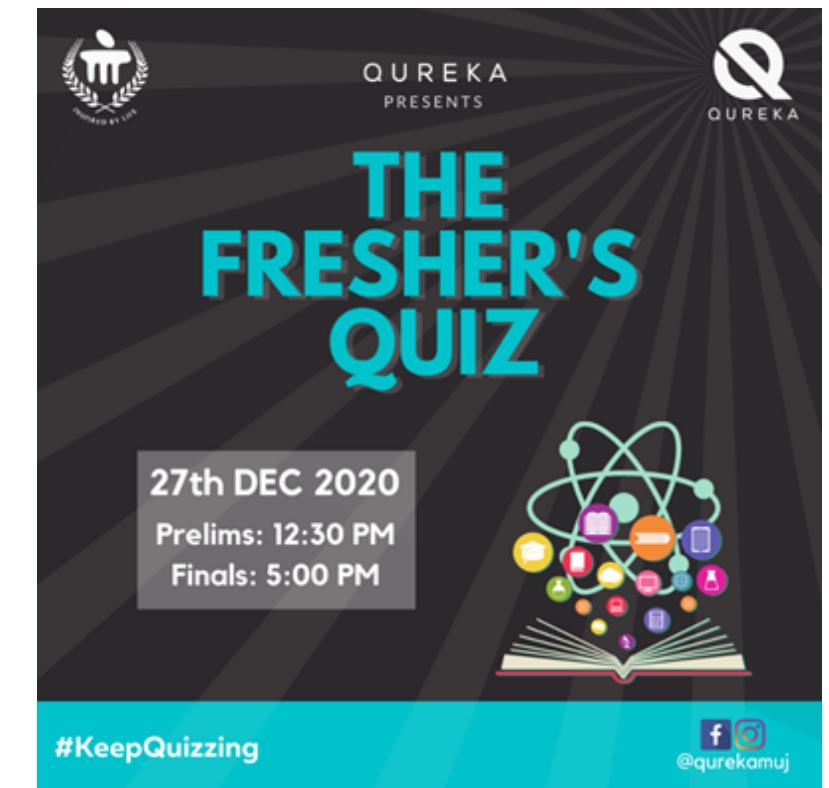

Previously Ramesh earned around 18,000 per month which was sufficient for his family to be fed and clothed. But now, having lost all sources of income, Ramesh says he is ready to take up any job unless it
